

Drug Discovery 2018

ExCeL, London
9TH – 10TH October 2018

Drug Discovery Networks- Alliances, Partnerships, CRO Relationships & Open Innovation: Wednesday 10TH October

Session Chairs: Andy Pearce (GlaxoSmithKline) & Julie Frearson (CRL)

Over the last decade drug discovery and development has evolved from the norm of a single organisation looking internally to achieve the entire process from target discovery through early development and launch, to a landscape where almost all drug discovery candidates emerge from one or often a series of partnerships and collaborations.

This session will feature the perspectives of leading experts from across the spectrum of disciplines and organisations involved in delivering an innovative candidate medicine through partnerships. Presentations will be business and science focussed featuring case studies and learnings to illustrate the increasing diversity of drug discovery execution paths and the key principles that underlie effective cross-sector drug discovery partnerships.
